Soviets Concentrating On Crisis In

London, Aug. 29.—Highly-placed experts on Russian affairs said tonight that the Soviet Union had relaxed activity in Europe to concentrate on the deepening crisis in her Balkan empire. The shift in emphasis was said to be the immediate result of the rift between the Kremlin and Communism's bad boy, Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

SLIDING STYLE—Modern design has even invaded the field of slides for children. This children's slide in a park in Stockholm, Sweden, is "futuristic" in design. It is the creation of the Danish sculptor, Egon Moeller-Nielsen. Despite its unusual shape, it seems to give the youngsters a thrill.

"LET ME LOOK AT YOU"—All the pathos and tragedy of a family separated for years is mirrored in the faces of these two just-reunited brothers. They hadn't seen each other for 40 years before this moment. Jay Bayme (left) of Brooklyn, New York, is greeting his brother, Leib Bejm, a displaced person. Bejm was among 1096 PD's arriving in New York aboard the transport General MacRae.

He was accompanied by his wife and young son.

TAKE HER AWAY—Dolly, the pint-sized pachyderm, just wants to be friendly, but this Los Angeles youngster seems to doubt her intentions. The 15-month-old elephant is touring the country in a mobile nursery. Usually Dolly's advances are enjoyed by the youngsters, but this lad is an exception.

LUCKY FISH—You've heard about poor fish. Now meet a lucky fish. True, the sailfish is dead, but it's probably in fish heaven with a lass like Audrey Lewis keeping it company. Stretching as high as she can, Audrey still can't span the fish. She landed it during the Miami Beach, Florida, Summer Fishing Tournament. It's seven feet, eight inches long.

the first British Journalist allowed on ELLIS ISLAND

No wonder Tener. Remember himthe Tribunal tailor? fighting

NEW YORK. II BIRSCH TEPER, the Tribunal tailor, has started a fresh fight in the New York courts to get off Ellis Island. Now I know why he is putting up such.

At the invitation of the American Government I spent some hours with Teper and all the Displaced Persons, murderers, ex-Stormtroopers, and unfortunates with whom he has spent the past six months.

And as the first foreign reporter allowed to visit [America's notorious point of no return I was heartily thankful that I was finally allowed to leave it.

Not that Ellis Island is a detention camp in the Nazi sense of the term. As you approach it-just after passing, of all things, the Statue of Liberty-it looks clean, green, and almost inviting.

And the buildings reminded me more of the dome

Even inside, the atmosphere was kindly, in spite of endless corridors of white tile, of padlocked gates, of barred windows, and of the emptiness of the little room where the lucky ones can buy a railway ticket to anywhere in their promised land.

And at first glance even Mr Teper seemed to be doing all right. I saw him first in a vast hall filled with benches, ping-pong tables, a few occasional tables, and billiards table. The looked like the waiting-room of a run-down railway.

The first thing I noticed about Mr Teper was that he was smoking a double-length American cigarette.

VOU do not see many people smoking on Ellis Island. They have not the money, unless they work for it at sixpence an hour, and those who do work are more keen upon saving every cent in case the time comes that they are allowed

Then I noticed that although Mr Teper wore khakl shortstopped by a duzzling checkered sports shirt—they were pressed and spotless.

100,000 Hear Gottwald Praise Soviet Union

CHURCH LEADERS? "POLITICAL AIMS"

Zvolen, Aug. 29.—Crowds estimated at 100,000 packed the flag-decked square here today to hear President Klement Gottwald, in one of his rare public appearances, address them on the last day of the celebrations commemorating the Slovak revolt against the German in 1944.

For 90 minutes the throng stood in the hot sun listening to speech-making. They heard the President praise the Soviet Union and declare that Czechoslovakia "will never allow itself to be disrupted."

Then they surged forward to watch a parade of troops, tanks and motorised units of infantry- and artillery being reviewed by the President. Flights of aircraft of British and German types flew overhead as the President watched mobile troops drive past in American trucks.

The Commission cautiously refrained from any mention of Tito's split with the Cominform, from trying to interpret recent Yugoslav moves in the Greek dispute. reported, however, that

Tito had order the Greek-Yugoslav border closed in July, and had been under attack by the "Free Greek" Radio, which is operated by the Communist-led

The Commission said it was not at present in a position to evaluate those developments or interpret the cut in Yugoslav ald to the guerillas, but promised to send the General Assembly a supplementary report next month with later informa-

RUMANIAN AID

The report noted that while Yugoslav, ald was decreasing, Rumanian assistance to the guerillas . was increasing. It pointed out, for example, that the "Free Greek" Radio was now operating from Rumanian territory instead of Yugoslavian. Both Albania and Bulgaria, the Commission said, are conlinuing to help the Greek guerillas despite United Nations condemnations. Both have lignored UN recommendations that they re-establish normal diplomatic relations with Greece.

The report said that Yugoslavia, as well as Albania and Bulgaria, still refused to recognise the Commission and had rejected all its efforts to send border observers across the Greek frontier to investigate reported incidents.

YORKSHIRE & MIDDLESEX TIE FOR THE COUNTY CRICKET CHAMPIONSHIP

London, Aug. 29.—The English County Cricket Championship ended in a tie today for the first time since 1898 when Yorkshire forced a two-day win over Glamorgan, last year's champions, and levelled with Middlesex at 192 points each

Sixty years ago Nottinghamshire, Lancashire and Surrey all shared the Championship.

Glamorgan's batting collapsed twice today against the combination of the fast right arm and left arm bowling of Alex Coxon and John Wardle. Coxon took three for 42 in the first innings and five for 17 in the second. Wardle's figures were four for 47 and five for 15.

Left to get 348 runs to win, Glamorgan were all out for 69 in their second innings, and Yorkshire won by 378 runs.

Hampshire gained an unexpected first innings lead against Lancashire after fighting to avoid a follow on. Clifford Walker, 29-year-old Yorkshireman, who was awarded his County cap afterwards, was chiefly responsible for he took part in a century stand with his captain, Eagar, and then put on 94 with Shackleton, a Lancashire-born player.

Walker batted faultlessly, for his second century, which was his highest score for the County, and he took part in another County record by becoming the seventh Hampshire batsman to score one thousand runs this Derbyshire routed Espex to win by an innings. Gladwin, and Copson played havoe with Essex throughout the day. Copson during the first innings had a spell of three for six runs in seven and then Gladwin took whve for six in one spell of the second innings, in which 131 balls were sufficient to dismiss Essex.

7. — The Correct Stance

The foot movements of a high class player during the course of his swing are made so quickly and smoothly that they quite often are taken for granted by everybody except the most observant student of the game. It is possible to play good golf from the hips upwards, but you must have good form from the hips down to be a really first class player.

Those who are observant enough to notice the footwork of the top players will come to realise that balance is an important part of every golf shot. They will realise also that it is impossible to attain balance without the proper foot action during the course of the swing.

Mr Hoffman emphasised that at the current American-British-Canadian dollar talks, only matters affecting those three countries would be discussed. He made this statement in response to a question to what extent conference results would be co-ordinated with the OEEC and governments of other ECA countries He said for example, the auestion of a bigger share of U.S. ECA ald for Britain would not be discussed since it was a matter for OEEC action.

Asked how devaluation could be discussed without impinging on the interests of other ECA countries, Mr Hoffman said: "As far as I know, we will not discuss -- devaluation." -- United
